AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY

65 Broadway.

Mr. Donald Frothingham.

Several publications received from firm.

October, 1919 - Maj. Miles thanked Mr. Frothingham for his reception of Lieut. Brown. Lieut. Brown outlined plan for cooperation in letter to Mr. Frothingham.

March, 1920 - Mr. Frothingham thanked Lieut. Brown for sending Col. Barzynski to see him, saying Col. Barzynski gave him useful information on Poland, and that he would be glad to reciprocate. Mr. Carl S. Whittier wrote that he would be glad to cooperate also.

August, 1921 - contact established with Mr. Matthew B. Claussen, who afterwards became associated with the Shipping Board. Mr. Claussen furnished list of foreign representatives and M/A's were directed to form contacts. G-2 asked to be informed when Mr. Baker, representative in India, returned to U.S.

September, 1921 - sent Mr. D. P. Aub, Washington, questionnaire on Australia; Mr. Aub replied that he would have Australian representative answer. (Nothing further received) G-2 asked M/A, England, for information re Cox and Co. for Mr. Aub. Received and given Mr. Aub. Mr. Aub has put G-2 on mailing list for sailings.

M/A's London and Brussels have reported satisfactory contacts.

Berne - unsatisfactory - inefficient organization.

March 20, 1922 - Mr. Frothingham interviewed by Maj. Churchill. Thanked for his cooperation and for having furnished list of representatives. Asked for estimate of situation on Russia, which was furnished Mar. 27.
